

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE AND BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Procurement Director- Projects & Strategic Equipment

Type: Member of Avangrid Renewables Board of Managers, Non- Independent

Other current professional activities and positions

Veronica Verónica Villar Coppola currently serves as Procurement Director – Projects & Strategic Equipment at Iberdrola, S.A..

As Procurement Director, Mrs. Villar Coppola manages global procurement strategy for renewable power generation equipment and electrical equipment for offshore and onshore transmission, across the Iberdrola group

Personal profile and academic training

Mrs. Verónica Villar Coppola has a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Universidad Católica del Uruguay and a master's degree in strategic consultancy for organizations from Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Noteworthy experience in the energy and industrial engineering sector

Mrs. Villar Coppola served in various procurement roles including as procurement manager for Iberdrola, S.A.'s liberalized businesses, procurement country manager in Scottish Power, and generation procurement manager for Iberdrola Engineering and Construction.

Verónica joined Iberdrola Group in 2000 in the Consultancy area of Engineering and Construction division.

Prior to joining the Iberdrola group, Mrs. Villar Coppola served as SMEs Risk Manager at Banco Santander Uruguay.

